

2018 Future Insurance Leaders of Oklahoma Information & Criteria for Admission

The mission of the IIAO Young Agents Leadership Program is to:

Develop dynamic leaders for the future of Oklahoma's independent agency system.

Candidates for the program must meet the following criteria:

- Under 40 years of age or in the business less than five years.
- Active P&C license.
- Organization must be a member in good standing of IIAO.

Please fully complete the application for admission on the reverse side of this page. The application requests basic information about the student as well as leadership training already received and community service performed.

The completed application along with a $375 fee ($425 after March 15, 2018) must be submitted together to register. Participants will be required to attend all five sessions and the community service day in order to receive a certificate of completion. 2018 FILO participants will receive one free registration for the IIAO Annual Conference in May.

Because space is limited, we ask that each applicant include a letter of commitment signed by the applicant and agency principal. Please tell us why you want to be in the program.

Students will be presented with an IIAO Certificate of Leadership at IIAO's Fall/Young Agents Conference in October.
